A large, three-dimensional logo for CES (Consumer Electronics Show) is suspended from the ceiling of a convention hall. The logo consists of the letters 'C', 'E', and 'S' in a bold, sans-serif font. The 'C' is white and set against a blue background. The 'E' is white and set against a blue background. The 'S' is white and set against a green background. The letters are arranged in a slightly overlapping, staggered fashion. The background of the hall features a corrugated metal ceiling and a large, light-colored curtain.
