AUDIO ENGINEERING SOCIETY

SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE AND TELEVISION ENGINEERS

DATE: 27 September 1988

TIME: 8:00 PM

PLACE: Producers Color Service
24242 Northwestern Hwy.
Southfield, MI

SPEAKER: Mack Leathurby
Random Access Systems
Lexicon Corporation

SUBJECT: USING A RANDOM ACCESS DIGITAL RECORDING SYSTEM
FOR AUDIO POSTING

A quick technical overview of digital audio recording will be presented followed by a discussion of the hardware and software comprising the Lexicon Opus - an integrated random access digital audio production system. Some of the various applications for such workstations will be explored. To close the meeting, Mack Leathurby will demonstrate a typical audio for video posting session.

The October SMPTE meeting will be a tour of Studio Center in Farmington Hills. Studio Center is a cluster of media companies including studios, graphics, audio, editing, equipment sales and rental and production. Each participating company will explain what it does and offer a tour of its facility.

Preceding the September meeting there will be a managers dinner/meeting at:
